OPERATIONS SUSPENDED AT MINE

Approximately 300 Effected By Shutdown Of International And McGillivray Tipple

An announcement was made Monday to the effect that by the end of the month operations would be suspended in the International underground and the McGillivray Preparation Plant.

In an interview with Mr. H. Wilton-Clarke of Coleman Collieries Ltd, the Journal was informed that coal will be processed at the International plant from Tent Mountain and the McGillivray mine. In the meantime the International mine will be maintained for resumption of operations if markets for coal improve.

This reduction in operations was brought about by the fact that coal sales in 1953 declined by 23 percent as compared to the previous year, and that there has been a further substantial decline to date in 1954.

It would appear that this decline is due to a general falling off of business with a resulting reduction in the amount of coal consumed. At the same time there has been a general decline in coal sales due to the dieselization of the railways and the stepping up of the conversion of locomotives to oil.

When asked as to the possibility of absorbing miners from the International mine to the working staff of the McGillivray mine, Mr. Clarke stated that the company takes the position that the seniority rules so well established in the past will apply.

S. S. Coleman To Offer Bargain Rates To World Entertainment

The keel has been laid for the S. S. Coleman and within a short time final plans will be announced for the trip that will bring Coleman people to foreign shores and enjoy the talents that these wondrous spots have to offer.

The S. S. Coleman is the theme, and quite possibly the title of the new 1954 version of the Coleman talent show. Following fast on the heels of the superb "Yours to Remember" the new show already appears to be a box office hit.

Director Jimmie Allan, Jr., and his associates have been spending many an evening planning the production and its cast.

Early plans call for the theme to take the form of an ocean cruise, the ship's captain and crew supplying the continuity and announcing each number by means of pantomime.

More information will be given as plans take shape.

Night Of Plays Shows Wealth Of Talent

The Coleman high school Night of Plays was presented to capacity audiences both nights and once more brought out the vast amount of talent that is here in Coleman. The three plays were well presented and enjoyed by the audience.

Following the introduction by President Wallace Neale, Director Glory Kroesing presented her cast in "No Greater Love". This was a pleasing performance of a difficult play. The cast gave a good performance considering the great age difference between the characters and the actors themselves. All members of the cast caught the finer feelings expressed in the play and endeavored to meet the problem of their own youthful energies.

Cast — Jo-Ann Montalbetti, Walter Tymchyna, Bill Urwin, Adela Zinook, Mary Kolibus.

"The Farmer's Daughter", directed by Diana Gierard, presented the old villain travelling salesman routine. This was a nice easy swinging performance. All members of the cast had a good sense of melodrama. Miss Bozenko has a lilting voice and projected a pleasing stage manner. Miss Kajan gave a polished performance with timing and voice outstanding. Archie Stewart as the city slicker was slick as slick.

Cast: Romilda Bozenko, Annie Kajan, Stanley Ondrik, Joan Rinaldi, Willie Sygutek, Archie Stewart.

Third in the series was "The Shock of My Life", directed by Miss Patricia Parker, and having a cast of Keith Wilson, Roseanne Prylarz, Lily Coley, Virginia Peknik, Kent Foster and Peter Makowichuk. This play opened with a well directed flourish and held a fast tempo throughout. Kent Foster pleased the audience with a fine unadorned characterization. The enthusiasm of the characters sometimes left their reactions to one another far behind, but audience interest was always at a high point. Keith Wilson contrasted nicely to the other members with a difficult role well handled.

Personnel of the rinks are: Jim Kerr, R. J. Kwassie, John Kerr, J. Pavis; C. Roughhead, E. Ledieu, D. Bartlett, J. Swing; E. Ledieu, G. Jenkins, W. Galt; R. Foster; Dr. Aiello, R. Pattinson, J. Montalbetti, J. Wilkie.

Hospital Aid Elects Officers

At a recent meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Crow's Nest Pass Hospital elected the following officers:

President, Mrs. Padgett, Bellevue; First Vice-President, Mrs. P. McNeil, Hillcrest; Second Vice-President, Mrs. B. Garner, Coleman; Secretary, Mrs. N. Unilowski, Blairmore; Treasurer, Mrs. M. McEachern, Bellevue; Knitting convener, Mrs. S. Bannan, Blairmore; Sewing convener, Mrs. E. Coates, Bellevue.

Junior Baseball

The Coleman Junior Baseball Club has reorganized under the direction of Eldio Mascherin, and hopes to enter a league comprising Pincher, Macleod, Cardston, Taber and Coleman.

During last season the youthful club played 16 games, winning 10, tying two and losing three. Action for this season will start on preparing the field when the Sports Association outlines the work wanted. Following this the club will begin practices.

Needing new uniforms, the club will conduct a couple of Booster Days in the near future.

WEDDING CAKE boxes can be secured at The Journal office.

"From Here To Eternity", Other Top Films To Play Roxy

In keeping with the presentation of top notch films here in the past few months, the Roxy Theatre have three more leading films to offer the public within the next month.

Perhaps the most talked about book and show of the last year is "From Here To Eternity", the hard hitting best seller about real life in the U. S. army. According to information received by The Journal this show will make its Coleman appearance around the end of April.

"Scandal at Scourie" brings together those two favorites, Walter Pidgeon and Greer Garson. Your editor saw the film some months ago and enjoyed it. Based on the politics of the days of Upper and Lower Canada it is the story of a woman's love for an orphan child, and the political and religious entanglements that can arise from a mother love at the time of an election.

"Little Boy Lost" brings back Bing Crosby in one of his finest films. We have read synopses of this picture but feel that theatre-goers will have to see it for themselves to appreciate it. It is claimed as Crosby's best since "Going My Way".

Coleman Skiers Win At Maycroft Meet

Coleman skiers held their own at the recent Maycroft ski tourney winning in a couple of events.

Bill Weber won the men's senior slalom and placed in the senior mens downhill. Margaret Hereford topped the Junior ladies' slalom and placed in the downhill.

Each and every town has at least one despicable person who cannot be described in print due to the laws of decency. Coleman is favorably endowed with at least one of these vermin, as was seen last week in the poisoning of Sam Saffro's dog.

People shop where they are invited—that's why it pays to advertise.

Union Calls Meeting To Discuss Plant Shutdown

On Monday morning at 10.30 the Coleman Local Union U.M.W.A. met with Mr. H. Wilton-Clarke and Mr. Miller of Coleman Collieries and heard the company proposal to close the International mine and the McGillivray preparation plant.

Following this meeting the executive discussed the matter thoroughly and decided to call a special meeting. This meeting is scheduled for 1.30 p.m. Thursday in the Roxy Theatre and will consider sending a protest to both the Provincial and the Federal governments. It is expected that a union district officer will attend.

It is estimated that somewhere between 200 and 300 men will be effected by the shutdown.

C.N.P. Hockey Trophies Presented

During the benefit hockey game Sunday, Ray Spillers presented the trophies to the Coleman Mid-jets and Coleman Junies, emblematic of hockey supremacy in the Crow's Nest Pass. Coleman clubs were fortunate this year in that they annexed all three trophies for bantam, midget and juvenile competition, adding to this the southern Alberta title and the prestige of reaching the provincial finals as accomplished by the juveniles.

Captain Phillip Nowasad accepted the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Co. trophy for the midget club, and Captain John Taron the Greenhill trophy for the juveniles. Coleman clubs have won the latter trophy for three consecutive years.

Curlers Discuss Artificial Ice

Artificial ice for the Coleman curling rink came under discussion again Friday night when the club held their regular meeting. As a result a committee comprising J. Kerr, J. Montalbetti, J. Malanchuk, C. Freeman, W. Liddell and W. Mosell was appointed to look into facts and figures of a holding plant and an artificial ice plant. Already 75 members have signified their intention to contribute $100 each towards artificial ice.

W. Fraser was elected to head the club for the coming year, with G. Jenkins, sr., as vice-president. Other officers are: V. Krzyzyn, secretary; J. Maynard, A. DeLuca, Dr. Aiello and O. Cell, executive; and T. Collister, D. Jenkins and W. Liddell, draw committee.

A DeLuca was appointed as auditor.

Willow Drive Protests Garbage Dumping

The annual meeting of the Willow Drive Community Association was held at the home of Mr. A. Hammer on Sunday, March 7.

Correspondence was read regarding street lighting in this district. A letter will be sent to Mr. Myers, East Kootenay Power Co.

representative, on his promptness in answering our plea regarding power shortage.

The President, Mrs. McCartney gave a report on the Valentines tea and it was decided that another tea would be held.

A letter will be sent to the Department of Lands and Mines asking about fences going to the river. Garbage disposal was brought up but was shelved pending further inquiry on this matter.

A complaint was received from Mr. D. McDonald that some people were dumping refuse on or near his property at Star Creek. As this is no nuisance grounds any person caught dumping refuse or garbage within this area will be reported.

The following executive was elected to carry out the work for the next year:

President, Mrs. McCartney. Vice-president, R. Low.

Secretary, W. Hammer.

Committee members, M. McCartney and P. Deagan.

Social committee members are Mrs. M. Julian, Mr. N. Hammer and Mrs. R. Low.

A man who came west by ox cart in 1878, John Swain recently celebrated his 86th birthday.

(By Mrs. C. Wetton)

In John Andrew Swain who celebrated his 86th birthday recently, North Battleford has a link with the early West of the buffalo hunter and the fur trader. The son of Thomas Swain who died at the age of 104, about 14 years ago, Mr. John Swain however is a pioneer in his own right.

It was 75 years ago this summer that he arrived with his parents at Prince Albert, N.W.T., after a 66-day journey by ox cart from Headingley, Man., in which young John herded cattle all the way on an Indian pony. There were six ox carts in the brigade that arrived in Prince Albert, August 9, 1878.

As well he might be John Swain is justly proud of his links with the Canada of over a century ago. His father, Thomas Swain was born near the forks of the Red and Assiniboine rivers in 1835, the son of an Englishman who came to the West of the fur traders many years before. Thomas Swain was 14 years old when he hunted his first buffalo. From then on he threw in his lot with the Plains hunters who roamed the West from the Red River to the foothills of the Rockies.

It was in this era that John Swain's father first met the famous Gabriel Dumont, famed Metis hunter and warrior. The friendships forged in those days survived even the animosities of Louis Riel's second uprising in 1885 when Thomas Swain and his one-time hunting partner, were to be found in rival camps.

Thomas Swain was hunting buffalo in the Sturgeon Lake country when Governor Morris was journeying West in 1876 to consummate a treaty with the Crees at Carlton and Fort Pitt. In the summer of 1878 he was to be found heading West to Battleford, freighting for the J. H. Ashdown Company of Winnipeg. It was on this trip that brought to Battleford, then the capital of the North West Territories, its first threshing machine. It was consigned to Lieut. Governor David Laird. Liking what he saw of the territory, Thomas Swain returned to Headingley for his family, and made plans to become a homesteader near Prince Albert the following year.

With his family round him in his home recently, John Swain had many recollections of that 66-day trip to Prince Albert in 1878, crossing the rivers on rafts; the floods at Little Saskatchewan, (now east of the Manitoba border), the herds of buffalo they saw along that route, and the hurry and bustle in Prince Albert when they reached the settlement. Bishop MacLean, the first Bishop of the Anglican diocese of Saskatchewan, that four years before had been carved out of Rupert's Land, was supervising plans for the construction of Emmanuel College that was to be opened that fall.

It was in Prince Albert that winter, that John Swain received his first schooling. His teachers were the young college boys, who took time out from their studies to teach the youngsters of the settlement their three R's.

John Swain likes to tell of the days when he hit E. K. Macleod, a young, divinity student as his teacher. He has reference of course to the venerated Canon Matheson who in later years, from his mission in Battleford, rendered a lifetime of service to his Church and the native peoples.

Reminiscing of the days when Archdeacon J. A. Mackay served as a missionary in this territory, John Swain recalls with pride that he christened all of his 14 children.

Sunday mornings John Swain is seen in his accustomed place in St. Paul's Church. It was a great joy to him after a service recently when Rev. P. H. Jockson, the rector, introduced this fine old pioneer to Bishop Steer.

Back to his home again, after the service, he was greeted by his wife and members of his family, who had arranged a gala birthday party for him.

Newcastle Strikes B.C. Poultry Flock

A large poultry flock at Victoria, B.C., has been quarantined for Newcastle Disease, reports the Health of Animals Division, Ottawa. The disease first appeared in the mature laying flock numbering approximately 2,800-2,900 birds. The owner attempted to protect his broiler flock of 4,000-5,000 birds by vaccinating the one-week and four-week-old chicks. Apparently the disease was already in the broiler birds in the incubative stage since in the younger birds the mortality was quite heavy. The flock is being kept under quarantine until it returns to normal health. In the meantime the owner will be permitted to market any apparently healthy birds if he desires, without compensation.

Funny and Otherwise

"What was all the noise over at the Brown's house, last night?"

"Oh, Brown just had some words with his wife."
"Really? Good for him! Usually he just has words from his wife."

Visitor: Your painting astounds me.
Artist: I spent thousands and thousands of dollars studying with the best teachers in order to learn how to paint.

Visitor: I'd like you to meet my cousin.
Artist: Why? Is he an artist too?

Visitor: No, he's a lawyer. He could get your money back.

Gloria: Doesn't Marie have a polished manner of speaking?
Jean: Yeah, everything she says manages to cast reflections on somebody.

In a grocer's shop several people were waiting to be served. Suddenly the cash register went crazy, clicking wildly and ringing up the same amount twice, after which it spun out the tape without a pause.

The assistant stared in amazement, and one customer exclaimed: "Heavens! Prices are too much even for machinery now!"

A recruit was causing his sergeant a lot of trouble. Finally the NCO went up to him and said sarcastically: "Do you realize you are the only one in step?"

"Well," said the recruit, "it's no good telling me—you'd better tell the other fellows!"

Judy: I want a man who is good, handsome, and intelligent.
Trudy: You don't want one, you want three.

He was obviously a novice at boxing and as he entered the ring and saw his hefty opponent he felt far from happy.

As he went to his corner he saw a man with a towel thrown over his shoulder. "Who are you?" he asked.

"I'm your second," was the reply.
A look of relief flashed over the novice's face. "No," he said firmly, "you go first—I'll go second!"

A small-part actor used to haunt his agent's office saying: "Anything doing for me today, Ted?" and Ted would answer, "Sorry, Charlie—nothing doing."

As the weeks went by words became superfluous. Charlie would look in, lift his eyebrows inquiringly, and Ted would shake his head.

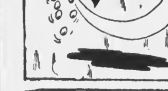

This went on for years. Then one day Charlie broke silence. He strode in saying: "Oh, by the way Ted, don't book me for any job during the next fortnight. I've decided to take a holiday."

Hunters Relate Experiences As They Receive Trophies

a crashing in the brush. Investigating the noise he was treated to a rare sight: not more than 50 yards away were two bucks locked in combat.

Scouting or sensing the hunter, the animals forgot their differences and bolted for cover.

Anticipating the move, Burley shot quickly and had the satisfaction of seeing the larger of the two slump to the ground.

The above picture shows five former deer brought down this winter by members of the association.

A shot from the crook of a tree was the beginning of the end of a six-year battle between Ed Childs and his well-antedler trophy. For that long had Ed been hunting the Rockwell district where the big buck made his home, seeing it, but never getting a good shot away.

Hunting with a party of five, about six and a half miles from Rockwell, Mr. Childs sighted the buck coming directly towards him while he was perched high on a tree-limb.

But the buck gained access to a narrow field and died across it to safety in the heavy bush.

The hunters took up the chase, following the tracks and bloodstains in the snow. The trail faded out but the group managed to circle the wily old buck.

Putting his rifle to his shoulder, Ed circled the animal nicely in his sights and one trigger-squeeze was all that was needed to end the six-year battle.

Burley Townsend's buck was one of a pair fighting in the bush when he broke up their battle as he approached—but not soon enough.

About 11:30 a.m. on the opening day of the season Burley was walking through a narrow pen of brush when suddenly he heard

Camrose Wants Status Of City

Camrose, Alta., Town Council will study at once the possibility of applying for a charter city, according to Mayor R. H. Hume, speaking at the recent ratepayers' meeting.

A report in the Camrose Canadian quoted Mayor Hume as saying that the present population was 5,365 persons. He also said that the Provincial Government informed the Town some time ago that just as soon as they passed the 5,000 population mark they could apply for a City Charter. This was disregarding the fact that the City Act requires a population of 10,000 now before a town can be granted a city charter. Camrose was granted the concession because they applied for a charter before the act was changed.

Camrose can secure its city status by January, 1935 and, according to Mayor Hume the new Council will be taking the matter up at once.

WEEKLY BIBLE COMMENT

THE MEANING OF GLORIFYING GOD

What does it mean to glorify God and use in His Glory?

One dictionary says glory is "distinguished honor or ornamentation; exalted reputation; praise; splendor of state; the quality of being radiant; luster; the bliss of heaven; a halo."

These dictionary definitions seem to be derived from the Bible. In the glorifying of God almost all the dictionary meanings are present, but chief among them is the quality of honor.

To glorify God is to honor Him. And what does honoring God mean? It is quite possible that honor means very much in relation to God what it means in the lesser things of life.

In ordinary, mundane matters we speak of "honoring" a check, or a note. This implies that we accept full responsibility for it as ours.

To honor God is to accept Him, to take His love and His will into our lives, to become responsible to Him for our character and ways.

Honoring God is something more than reverence or obedience. It is a false notion that represents God as a great potentate, sitting on a throne in gorgeous garments.

It is false to represent God as being ready to wreak His vengeance and authority upon His subjects if they do not fall down and offer their abject devotion.

The likeness of God to earthly sovereigns has been overdone. It is a false and misleading conception.

To glorify God is to accept Him and what He offers, and to become like Him in creative life and acts of love and good will.

"Here is my Father glorified," said Jesus, "that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be My disciples."

Big Game Seen In Mountains

MACLEOD, Alta. — Floris Lemire, looking out of his room window in the Greenhill hotel in Blairmore, saw three moose and seven deer on the foothills quite close to the buildings. This is unusual, particularly as moose are so seldom seen in the mountains west of here. Floris says he wasn't "seeing" things; they were real enough—not pink elephants or anything of that kind.

First Co-operative Farm In Manitoba Granted Charter

CARMAN, Man. — A group of Manitoba farmers have recently been granted a charter for a co-operative farm—the first of its kind in Manitoba. The farm has been named Valdemere Co-operative Farm Limited, and is situated one mile south of No. 2 Highway at Deleau. The farm is 1,920 acres in size.

Members of the group are Mr. and Mrs. Dan Blatz and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Doerksen of Love Farm, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Sisson of Elm Creek, A. Mitchell of Roblin, John Wotton of Basewood and Miss Miriam Atkinson of Winnipeg. Mr. Wotton and Miss Atkinson plan to be married this summer.

Mrs. Blatz is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Loepky of Carman and Miss Atkinson is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. Atkinson of Carman.

Members of the co-op. farm are setting their privately-owned land and will move to the new property in the summer. Present plans call for a building program to provide necessary homes for all the families. There is only one residence on the farms at present. The group hope to raise pure-bred cattle, as well as a milking herd, and a laying flock. The usual grain crops will be grown as well as a small acreage of sunflowers.

Several co-operative farms are operating successfully in Saskatchewan, but none has been tried in this province in modern times. Before taking final steps towards organization of the farm co-op., all members of the group made exhaustive studies of similar farms in Saskatchewan and much valuable information was obtained. They received assistance in their planning from the Manitoba Co-operative Services department.

PRISCILLA'S POP—Ask Any Grandma —By Al Vermeer

Editorially SPEAKING

THE RED CROSS PLAYS DETECTIVE-

AN OFFSPRING of wartime exigencies, the Red Cross Enquiry Service is when examined, one of the most interesting of the Society's services for in this phase of its work, the Canadian Red Cross plays Sherlock Holmes.

Indeed, Sherlock would enjoy thoroughly the detection that goes into tracing many of the long-lost relatives because of the War who are objects of the Enquiry Service's searches.

A typical search by the Enquiry Service at Divisional Headquarters was brought to a successful conclusion this past week.

Original instigator of the search was a man from Patricia, Alta., asking through his local branch last April, if Red Cross could find his niece who disappeared from her home in Poland in 1940 or 1941, when she was about 15 years of age. The girl's name and address in the Saar Valley was supplied from where the last news of her had been received by her parents in 1944.

The Patricia man filled out the regular forms which were sent to the National Headquarters of the Society and then forwarded to the Allied High Commissioner for Germany, International Tracing Service. Tracers in Germany found that the girl had worked in two areas in Germany and then had been placed in a DP camp, had worked in two other places and finally left, in 1948, to emigrate to England. Appeal was then made to the British Red Cross Society who traced the girl to her present address in England. She is now in communication with her uncle in Alberta.

It is interesting to note that of the 141 enquiries received in this province last year, 42 persons were located in Alberta, 21 persons in other countries and provinces, and 52 cases left outstanding.

BANKERS ADVISE ADVERTISING...

MERCHANTS WHO do not advertise are invited to read the following from the American Bankers' Magazine, as it might give them a new slant on business as well as the matter of building up your town.

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two-line space. A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertiser. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and his town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising business men."

Following the church service a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and a three-tiered wedding cake graced the table.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Krish will reside in Bellevue.

everything to eat plus all kinds of liquor. A lady bought a big bag of provisions, and as she picked it up she could hardly see over it. I walked up and said "Lady, that's too big a load for a little girl like you." I took the bag and carried it out to her car.

She said, "You are not a native Californian. Where do you come from?" I told her I came from Alberta, the best country in the world, where it is deemed both a privilege and a pleasure to be of service. In my own country I am an ambassador of goodwill, but here I am a missionary spreading the gospel of Alberta. You, the general public of our towns can do much to help. If you see a stranger in your midst, offer your services as to guiding, or service of information. It pays big dividends. Don't let me down.

People here are often afraid to speak to anyone on the street for fear they are robbed, cheated or beat up.

I should be home next month. Have a dinner engagement nearly every evening and full days over the week-end. Was in Mexico last week-end, so busy doing things that I find difficult to write, but am listing everything so I can give you a fairly comprehensive picture of any or all of it when I get back to you. In the meantime look after those people who come from out of town places. Prove to them that Alberta and Alberta people are both as big and as grand as I have painted. You should be as proud as I.

COMMUNITY EFFORT—Everybody in and around the town of Bromhead, located in south-central Saskatchewan, had a hand some place in the construction of the Bromhead Memorial Rink. Large crews of men worked long hours with no pay, and now can look upon a completed building something to be proud of. Pictures below show the various stages of construction:

TAKING SHAPE—After the rafters had been put up the roof was covered with sheets of plywood, a part of the work that went quickly.

NEARING COMPLETION—When the main structure was nearly closed in the men turned their attention to finishing work, adding the waiting room part of their rink.

COMPLETED BUILDING—It contains a full-sized skating ice, and one sheet of curling ice. The new building replaces a former structure built in 1927.

STRONG-BOX SAVED THOUSANDS IN BREAK-IN—Safe-crackers recently peeled the door off the safe in the Alton, Manitoba, Co-op store and absconded with $19.00 in small change. Most of the change taken, however, had been rifled from three cash registers, while some $25.00 had been scattered on the floor around the safe. The thieves were apparently after larger loot contained in an inside compartment of the safe, but were unable to force the inside door. Store officials were reluctant to divulge the exact amount contained but stated it would run to several thousands in cash and cheques. Examining the rubble around it is Constable Mike Stewart, who started his duties as Allona's town constable that same morning.

LARGEST BUT NOT TALLEST—Though the giant redwoods of California are known as the largest trees in the world, they are by no means the tallest. The eucalyptus of Australia towers higher than any other tree, reaching a height of 480 feet.

BUCKETS GAL-ORE—Hitting the hoops for a six-game average of 41.3 points, 16-year-old Velma Luning is the pride of the girls at Easton, Kan., High school. Velma is the high-scoring forward on the school's feminine quintet.

TOUCH OF GOLD—Swimsuits sport tiny sleeves for the coming resort season, harking back to grandma's day when ladies "covered up" in the sun. The romper swim-and-sun suit is a Claire McCordell creation.

MEN of the Quantico, Va., Marine base would have you know this is not the usual classroom set-up, but there are very few activities that Private Jiggs Vith does not share. Posing with pencil and book in the Marine Corps School, the big English bulldog mascot is a traditional part of leatherneck ceremonies and sports events.

THE FRENCH NAVY Bathyscaphe FNRS3 leaves the West African port of Dakar for a dive into the unknown waters of the Atlantic Ocean. Under the guiding hand of French Navy Lt. Cmdr. Georges Houot, and an engineer's mate, the craft descended 13,288 feet (more than 2½ miles), to shatter the old record set by Prof. Auguste Piccard and his son Jacques at 10,339 feet.

MR. AND MRS. RAE L. KING enjoying the Hawaiian summer weather while it was freezing cold in Western Canada. Mr. King is the Editor of The Camrose Canadian (Alberta), and Mrs. King was formerly Miss Jessie McCreary, for a number of years on the Intermediate High School staff in St. James, Man.

GRINNING BROADLY, President Dwight D. Eisenhower waits to press a telegraph key which signalled the opening of the third annual International Trade Fair in Seattle, Wash. The President surprised professional telegraphers by remembering the international code, which he learned 40 years ago at West Point.

FOR GADGET-LOVERS

Gadgets of all kinds are popular and many of them are useful as labor-savers. But there is one that could be dangerous. The prop that is used to hold an infant's bottle while he is feeding can be the cause of drowning the child if he is not big enough to move about to avoid the liquid. No baby should ever be left alone while he is feeding. It is preferable that he be held during his meal or at least watched every minute of the time. It takes so little time for an accident of this type to happen.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

ROMANTIC MAN

By Fred Gordon

"THIS is certainly a fine home you have here, George," I said. "A neat, cozy little place." I smiled at George's wife, Mrs. Wallace, and said: "I'll bet you're in love with it!" She gave me an agreeable smile and suddenly jumped to her feet.

"Oh, please excuse me," she gasped excitedly, "I forgot all about my roast. A few more minutes and you men wouldn't have had any meat tonight. I had better take a look!"

I called after her as she walked to the kitchen, "Better make that roast good, Mrs. Wallace—meat's a treat to an old bachelor like me."

George walked over to a tall maple cabinet and took out some prized liquor. "Here 'yare, Harry. A little appetizer." He filled two small glasses and gave me one. I raised mine and touched it to his. In that small moment, with our glasses together, a warm fire of shadows playing on George's face, a strange feeling came over me. Here was George, my closest boyhood chum. This home was his, this warm fire, all the security and happiness it suggested—and that pretty, amiable woman in the kitchen, his wife. And what did I have? Nothing. A happy-go-lucky life, perhaps. But that was all. None of the world of George Wallace.

Our glasses tinkled against each other. "To Mrs. Wallace," I toasted.

"To the girl who stood on the street-corner in the rain," he returned.

We downed our drinks and a

Former Virden Man Strikes It Rich

According to a Canadian Press dispatch Jack Foster, formerly of Virden and now an automobile dealer at Geraldton, Ontario, is worth at least $1,500,000 as a result of a valuable copper-silver strike he and two other Geraldton men made in the Ontario north country.

Mr. Foster, son of Mrs. E. W. Foster of Virden and the late Mr. Foster, enjoyed weekend prospecting trips with Roy Barker and William Dowditch. Their leisure time prospecting really paid off when they discovered what may be one of the richest base metal finds in Canada. For their discovery they received 450,000 shares in Geco Mines Limited. This stock sold at $3 a share on the unlisted market last December and has jumped to a high of $11.75 since it was first listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange several weeks ago.

As a hobby the three men studied base metal formations and used to fly weekends in Geraldton, well-known farmers of the district south of the city, threw a few things into their suitcases and headed for California on December first, their intention was to spend a nice quiet holiday on the sun-lapped beaches of that winter playground. But through the intricacies of fate, that holiday has turned into a series of TV and rodeo appearances that has put the girls' photographs on many of the big dailies in Southern California and Arizona, and has caused them to be booked for appearances at the Silver Spurs Rodeo at Yuma, Arizona, as "Canada's Only Lady Trick-Rope Artists".

Their first appearance on television was working on the same program with such film stars as Wild Bill Elliott, Boston Blackie and Buddie Baer. Folks watching this big polo-benefit show were so impressed with the Swift Current artists that their act was stretched out to a half-hour, something the local papers said was "very unusual". The director of the Silver Spurs Rodeo watched their performance and went around to the audience and signed them up for the big Yuma show. He also persuaded them to run in the Queen of the Rodeo contest which, as it turned out, was won by a young lady from Hollywood.

Home Workshop

This novel table and the bunny chairs will make your children's dining and play time the gayest in town. Where there are no children in the house the table will make an interesting coffee table for a game room or terrace. These pieces are made from three-quarter-inch solid stock and the bunny ears are traced directly onto the wood from the pattern, which also shows exactly where to place each shade and color for realistic effects. See sketch for pattern numbers and enclose 35c for each pattern ordered. As spring is just around the corner outdoor play equipment will soon be needed. A packet of five full-size patterns will be mailed for $1.50. Ask for Outdoor Play Equipment Packet No. 1.

A combination seat and clothes rack with a place for shoes under the seat makes an ideal dressing stand for a small girl or boy. The floor lamp also is equipped with clothes hooks and the jolly bunny which forms the base of both pieces stands ready to hold hats and sweaters on their big ears. Just trace the bunnies from the pattern right onto the wood and they are ready to saw out and assemble. Pattern gives step-by-step details for making the clothes rack and the bunny lamp. When ordering be sure to give pattern number and enclose 35c with name and address.

Swift Current Girls Appear in TV And Rodeo Shows in U.S.

Carmel Gowan

Shirley Gowan

SWIFT CURRENT, Sask. — When Carmel and Shirley Gowan, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Gowan, well-known farmers of the district south of the city, threw a few things into their suitcases and headed for California on December first, their intention was to spend a nice quiet holiday on the sun-lapped beaches of that winter playground. But through the intricacies of fate, that holiday has turned into a series of TV and rodeo appearances that has put the girls' photographs on many of the big dailies in Southern California and Arizona, and has caused them to be booked for appearances at the Silver Spurs Rodeo at Yuma, Arizona, as "Canada's Only Lady Trick-Rope Artists".

Their first appearance on television was working on the same program with such film stars as Wild Bill Elliott, Boston Blackie and Buddie Baer. Folks watching this big polo-benefit show were so impressed with the Swift Current artists that their act was stretched out to a half-hour, something the local papers said was "very unusual". The director of the Silver Spurs Rodeo watched their performance and went around to the audience and signed them up for the big Yuma show. He also persuaded them to run in the Queen of the Rodeo contest which, as it turned out, was won by a young lady from Hollywood.

Since then, according to telegraphic reports sent their father, they have made several other TV appearances. The one they liked best was which featured the Sons of the Pioneers and in which vocalist Neil Manville sang Rodeo Cowboy Joe while centred by the twirling rope in the hands of Carmel.

Drayton Valley To Be Developed Into Model Town

Drayton Valley, an unincorporated hamlet of half a dozen buildings a few miles northwest of Buck Lake, will be developed into a model town to serve the new Pembina oil field, it was announced by Hon. E. C. Gerhart, Minister of Municipal Affairs.

The hamlet is situated on the North Saskatchewan river 60 miles southwest of Edmonton, and is now the jumping off place for the oil field, at the end of a narrow dirt road.

Mr. Gerhart said it would be given sewer, water and telephone service and development under the direct supervision of his department.

"We expect Drayton Valley to become Alberta's newest major population centre, but we want to see it develop along modern town planning principles," Gerhart said following a visit to the district.

Streets will be laid out by government surveyors and no construction will be allowed until building permits have been issued.

AT WETASKIWIN

Curlers Fed-Up On Weatherman — Plan Artificial Ice

WETASKIWIN, Alta. — Exasperated over the disruption of recent curling seasons by the weatherman, members of the Wetaskiwin Curling Club at a general meeting launched a move which they hope will lead to the installation of artificial ice in their six-sheet building before next October 1st.

The meeting was attended by more than 50 members. Even before the examination into financing had started, however, it appeared inevitable that the move would mean steeply increased membership fees.

Jack Pike made the motion to have the executive inquire into the cost of installing artificial ice for curling, and it was seconded by Jack Rix.

The members also approved a motion that membership shares be sold for $100, that curling fees for those holding membership shares be $25, and that fees for others be $35.

When Disaster Strikes Red Cross Is Ready

THINGS were going along pretty well with this boy's family. They had a snug little home on a 1/4 section which was almost paid for, the family was looking forward to the time when they could afford a luxury or two. Then the wind came—the results of years of toil wiped out in a few terrible moments. His parents and sister all slightly injured are at the neighbors. What happens now, the boy asks himself.

Wherever it is needed Red Cross lends a helping hand. To a family overwhelmed by misfortune, or natural catastrophe, or to an entire nation.

Almost everyone is familiar with the large disasters which have occurred in the world, but few people realize that Red Cross usually is called upon to assist in over 1,000 minor disasters in this country each year. For example, here in Saskatchewan during 1933, over 400 persons who were victims of some 87 fire disasters were aided with bedding, clothing, food, medicines and supplies. The local Red Cross representatives report the emergency needs of the stricken families to Red Cross Headquarters in Regina. Emergency supplies are shipped the fastest way or bought locally.

On the International scene, the Canadian Red Cross has played many important roles. The women of Canada have made hundreds of thousands of garments and tents during 1933, the Society's relief stocks in Canada and Switzerland are completely exhausted. The first time was aid to the Netherlands and England, and the second occasion for the victims of the Greek Disaster. In addition, aid was sent to Korea and Iraq and various other less fortunate countries. A Red Cross team of workers has been maintained in Japan and Korea and are presently assisting with the civil relief in Korea.

Here in Saskatchewan, volunteer women workers cut and made 36,275 new garments which were distributed free to destitute and needy people in other countries. They also made 2,000 garments which were given to needy children in this province. The cost of the materials was over $20,000 which means that it's shirts, dresses, pajamas, socks, etc. were made for approximately 50 cents per garment.

There is a great need for this type of voluntary work which may be done in the individual home. The women's workshop headquarters in Regina supplies the material already cut or the wool for the knitting with complete directions. The workshop Directors would welcome enquiries from interested groups.

After the Annual Meeting, which is held in February each year, a 100 page annual report is published which details all the work and includes the financial statements. These reports are mailed to all Branches and newspapers. Individuals may secure copies from the Headquarters Office in Regina. 3079

Grands Win Benefit Game

Coleman Grands entered Sunday's benefit game with nothing to win and a lot to lose. Had they been defeated they would lose prestige . . . if they roughed it up in an "I'll get even" outlook, they would lose respect. After 60 minutes of hockey and 19 goals the

Grands skated off the winner

The kids have won fan following by winning the southern Alberta title and reaching the provincial finals while the Grands of late have been as inactive as a miser's dollar. The kids deserved the following with the style of hockey played and on Sunday went out to win. They played the game with the same fervor that took them to the title

We feel that this contest, played in benefit of juvenile Dick Al-doff, should have been left till the hockey season is over. It was a ticklish situation for any intermediate team to face prior to league playoffs.
Juveniles held the play close in the first, dropping behind 2-1 and despite the determination of every player on the team, dropped behind 8-2 in the second and 16-3 at the end.
